FINANCIAL DETAILS

- Pocket Money: Volunteers, either long-term or short-term, will get 180€ for pocket money and 180€ for food money per month in cash.
- Local transportation: We will give each volunteer a monthly local transportation card. If they need it, they can charge it with money. (Local transportation is only covered, according to the distance of the activity locations from the volunteers' house.)
- Travel Expenses: The volunteer should buy their return ticket before starting the project. Tax/VAT and other kinds of fees will not be reimbursed. The budget of the program is set according to ESC Program rules. If all documents are provided (invoice for flight, bus, train, tickets, and boarding passes for flight), the reimbursement will be during the stay. We need all the receipts, tickets, and boarding passes (for both ways). After the project ends, the volunteers must send to ANDER (scanned version through email and originals by post) all the tickets and boarding passes for their travel.
- Visa and Residence permit: If the volunteer needs a visa, we will send them an invitation letter and cover their visa expenses according to the project budget limit.
- Insurance: ANDER will create volunteer insurance from the HENNER company. The volunteer must validate their

YOUTH PASS

All participants will receive a Youthpass certificate.

- Youthpass is a part of the European Commission's strategy to foster the recognition of non-formal learning. It is available for projects funded by Erasmus+. As a tool to document and recognize learning outcomes, it puts policy into practice and practice into policy.
- While creating their Youthpass Certificate, the participants can describe what they have done during the project and which competences they have acquired.
- Youthpass certificate is a Europe-wide validation instrument for non-formal learning, which strengthens the social recognition of youth work.
- It supports active European citizenship of youngsters and youth workers.
- It also aims to support the employability of youngsters and youth workers by documenting the acquisition of key competences.
