KA1 - MOBILITY OF YOUTH WORKERS

CALL FOR PARTNERS – Erasmus+ Mobility of Youth workers
Training: “Better safe than sorry” – Practical tools for Crisis
Management in Volunteering Services.
Duration: 5 days 09.-13.11.2021 (excl. arrival and departure-day)

Background of the project

Grenzenlos is running international projects and exchanges since nearly 70 years. In the last years we dedicated our trainings to the topics of civil courage, human rights, and peace-work. But one of the most recurrent topics on the last years has been the need for a better preparation and support for our organisations and the participants itself whenever there is the need for psychological support.

The training is part of a bigger strategy that aims create awareness of the preparation, handling, and follow-up during the crisis intervention.

After the success of the seminar in 2020, Grenzenlos is now aiming to create a training course on practical methods that can be used to mitigate crisis in volunteering services. It will be a holistic activity that will ask for the participants experiences and knowledge to enrich the program and to provide new and different inputs on dealing with crisis in volunteering services.

Aims and Objectives

- ✪ To promote discuss how different organisations prepare their personal and volunteers in case of crisis innervations;
- ✪ To have fruitful debates on dealing with crisis;
- ✪ To apply to created “Quick Check-List” of the previous training in different settings;
- ✪ To give youth organisations methods on how mitigate possible crisis during the preparation, handling and follow ups;
- ✪ To give participants and youth organisations involved in international voluntary projects tools to manage with psychological crisis.
